Overview:

We are looking for a dedicated and responsible Small Stock Herder to oversee the daily care and welfare of small livestock such as sheep, goats, or other similar animals. The ideal candidate will have a passion for animal husbandry, strong observational skills, and the ability to work independently in rural settings.

Main Responsibilities (but not limited to):

Animal Care:

- Feed and water livestock according to dietary needs.
- Monitor the health and well-being of animals, administering medications and vaccinations as needed.
- Assist with birthing and weaning processes.
- Provide shelter and maintain clean living conditions for the animals.

Herd Management:

- Move livestock to different grazing areas to ensure a fresh food supply.
- Protect livestock from predators and adverse weather conditions.

Maintenance and Upkeep:

- Repair and maintain fencing, corrals, and other infrastructure.
- Maintain equipment and tools used in herding and care of livestock.

Environmental Stewardship:

- Implement sustainable grazing practices to preserve and improve pasture health.
- Monitor and manage water resources effectively.

Job requirements:

- Earlier experience in livestock care, particularly with small stock, is preferred.
- Knowledge of basic veterinary care and animal husbandry practices.
- Ability to work long hours, often in isolated and challenging environments.
- Strong physical stamina and the ability to perform manual labor.
- Effective communication skills and the ability to work independently.
- Familiarity with pasture management and sustainable farming practices.
